

Innsbrook Resort Golf Course

Contributed by Bryan Spitzer
Tuesday, 05 June 2007
Last Updated Tuesday, 05 June 2007

Innsbrook Resort Golf Course is nationally recognized, having received a "Four-Star Rating" from Golf Digest, making our course the highest rated resort facility in the state of Missouri. Golf Digest describes Innsbrook as "great golf, great people, great challenge, great price." Sports Illustrated rates our facility a "4.8 on a scale of 5," with such praise as, "best value in the area, very scenic and peaceful, a real hidden gem, great rates and service, an exceptional course."

courtesy: innsbrook resort

Innsbrook Resort Golf Course is the centerpiece of Innsbrook Resort and Conference Center, located in eastern Missouri, west of St. Louis. The 7,400-acre resort includes an executive conference center, recreational and residential homes, lakeside vacation condominiums, 87 lakes, tennis courts, swimming pool, stables and nature trails, in addition to our restaurant, pro shop and championship golf course. Though we have created a wonderful facility for businesspeople, organizations, families, vacationers and golfers, we have not forgotten the natural beauty and wildlife that reside here. The golf course and resort are both recognized as "Certified Audubon Cooperative Sanctuaries".

courtesy: innsbrook resort